KING GORIN'S STAKE RACE

COMES FROM BEHIND AND WINS THE D. & C. STAKES IN THE LAST STRIDE.

Frigerio at Odds-On Defeated by Sol Gilsey—Father Riley's Victory Makes a Double for Owner Baker.

Detroit, Mich., July 19.—Today's feature race at Windsor, the D. and C. Stakes with $1,500 added, brought a smart band of milers to the post and incidentally furnished the best contest of the meeting. There were nine starters and R. L. Baker furnished the winner in King Gorin, which came from behind and just managed to get up in the final stride to beat Venetia by a head. Fountain Fay was third a half length away and a nose in advance of Prince Albert. Then followed Water Lady and Indolence right on top of the leaders. Prince Albert and Water Lady both had bad luck, the former stumbling in the last twenty yards, while Water Lady was on the inside and pinned against the rail through the last eighth.

The outstanding disappointment of the afternoon was the defeat of the two-year-old Frigerio in the opening dash. Incidentally Frigerio was the shortest-priced horse that has gone to the post on the Canadian circuit this season. He was a 1 to 5 favorite. The one to take him into camp was the Marklein youngster, Sol Gilsey, which came from behind and won drawing out by a half length.

The R. L. Baker stable scored a double when Father Riley followed up King Gorin's victory, by making a runaway affair of the fifth race. He never was in trouble and beat Hocnir by a length and a half.

The attendance was again large and speculation brisk. Weather and track conditions were all that could be desired. A light shower fell just after the running of the first race, but it was only sufficient to lay the dust.

Jockey M. Anderson, who was injured as a result of a fall at Ottawa, was an arrival at Windsor this morning. He is still a bit lame but has recovered enough to be able to accept mounts again.

Capt. W. F. Presgrave, acting for Lieut. J. K. L. Ross, has purchased the entire crop of yearlings bred by Mrs. L. A. Livingston, at her farm near Cobourg, Ont. There are five in the band, and they are said to be extra good lookers. They will be shipped to the Blue Bonnets track in Montreal, where they will be broken and tried out. Capt. Presgrave also purchased at private sale from Samuel Louis the plater Handfull.

Jockey Ted Rice was suspended for two days by the starter for disobedience at the post in the seventh race yesterday.

A. R. London before returning to Hamilton announced that extensive improvements were being made to the plant of the Hamilton Jockey Club. Macadamized roads are being constructed all through the grounds and about the stables and a number of flower beds have been laid out.

Capt. W. F. Presgrave leaves for Baltimore tomorrow night to look over the improvements made on the plant at Pimlico. The mutuel building will be lengthened sixty-six feet and a new bleacher stand of concrete and steel will be erected. The present grandstand will be moved back twenty feet at the upper end and will be placed on an angle so as to afford a perfect view of all the racing.

The members of the Thoroughbred Horse Association will hold a meeting at the Windsor Athletic Club on Pitt street at 8 o'clock Friday night.

BEST RACERS MAKE THE BEST SIRES.

Comparatively few mares that have made a great name for themselves on the race course have done equally well at the stud, but as a general rule the stallions which do best as sires are those which have distinguished themselves on the turf. Wallace, Malster and Bodadil, the most successful Australian-bred sires of the present day, were all good racehorses, and most of the imported stallions whose stock have shone in this country had racing form to recommend them before they left England. Exceptions can be quoted, Grafton being one, and though Ayr Laddie was trained and raced in Australia he was only moderate.

In England, in particular, the successful racehorse gets the greatest stud opportunities, though, of course, some horses that did little or no racing, are included among its successful sires. Tredennis, whose fee this season is 200 guineas, possesses no racing record, and the "Special Commissioner" of the London Sportsman in discussing the subject, points out that it was the same with Young Melbourne, a most successful stallion. Then he quotes a more recent instance in Missel Thrush, concerning which he writes:

"Missel Thrush never saw a race course, but he was a beautiful colt when I saw him as a two-year-old at Kingsclere—indeed, he was, no doubt, the best in the stable—and the following year, when the great sale came off, and Flying Fox was sold to M. Edmond Blanc, Missel Thrush was retained by John Porter for a pretty big price. In other words, he was known to be good, otherwise he would not have been retained, but he developed ringbones, and never started for a race. Such a record is far better than that of one who has been tried in the balance and found wanting. * * *

A certain mystery may hang over Tredennis, which is beautifully bred, and the story of Missel Thrush and the Kingsclere sale provide a credential in such a case, but to race with only moderate success is banal in the extreme, and it would need a millionaire, and an obstinate one at that, to make a successful stallion out of a second class race horse, though of course, if he persisted in buying the best broodmares to mate with him, regardless of cost, he might succeed in doing so."—"Pilot," in Sydney Referee.

CHANGE IN JOCKEY CLUB RULES.

New York, July 19.—At a recent meeting of the Jockey Club an amendment to the rules of racing was adopted relating to handicap weights. Under the old rules in all handicaps where the added money exceeds $600 it was mandatory that the top weight should not be less than 126 pounds. Now the rule has been changed, fixing 126 pounds as the minimum top weight in all handicaps in excess of $800, except in selling handicaps.

The original amendment did not make the exception for selling handicaps and it was introduced by Spalding L. Jenkins on behalf of the Maryland Jockey Club, which desired to increase purses without being forced to go to the handicap weight regulation.

The amendment to the amendment, excepting the selling handicaps, was introduced by Captain Cassatt and was at once accepted by Mr. Jenkins.

Following the meeting of the Jockey Club there was a session of the stewards at which Schuyler L. Parsons was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club at the Saratoga meeting.

BREAKING RECORDS AT EMPIRE CITY.

Fernrock Takes the Morrisania Handicap and Tragedy Wins the Demoiselle Stakes.

New York, July 19.—There were two feature races at Empire City today which were run over a fast track and under a broiling sun. In the Morrisania Handicap Fernrock covered one mile and seventy yards in 1:43, which reduced by two-fifths of a second the track record made by Water Cure, October 23, 1900, and equalled by Hedge two years ago. Trial by Jury and Roly were made the choices for the race, but the smart set were inclined to favor the chances of Hank O'Day and Fernrock. Mr. Schorr thought he had an excellent chance to win with Hank O'Day, but he was not a match for any of his opponents. Fernrock set the pace and Roly joined him on the backstretch and ran head and head for a while until Roly retired. Fernrock appeared beaten when Trial by Jury loomed into prominence, but Fernrock had something left, while the weight told on Trial by Jury and he tired on the way home.

The Demoiselle stakes went to Tragedy, carrying the top weight of 122 pounds. She covered the route in game fashion, responding to the fast pace set by Marie Odile and coming on in the stretch to win going away. Hathor was slow about getting into action and ran into the third place for awhile, but was wanting when the decisive racing came. Tragedy may be one of the good fillies of the year, at least that is the general impression after her game showing today.

King Baggot made good in the first easily at prohibitive odds. The colt was entered for $1,400 and J. W. Hedrick bid $1,500, but his bid was too late. Hedrick visited the steward's stand and entered a protest, but it was not allowed.

J. W. May was in receipt of a message from his father, Capt. W. F. May, who was injured by being struck by an automobile yesterday. The message stated he was not seriously hurt, merely being bruised a trifle.

Sam McMeekin, winner of the second race, was advanced from $1,500 to $2,160 by J. Kelly, but was retained by his new owner, Joseph Marrone.

Favorites were knocked over like ten-pins this afternoon. Even Kilkenny Boy, which has won several races in succession, was badly beaten.

Boots won the race for which Kilkenny Boy was held at short odds and made a new track record of 1:38⅗, for one mile, taking one-fifth of a second from the mark made by Prince Ahmed, July 26, 1909.

When J. W. Hedrick lodge a protest against the rejection of his bid of $1,500 on King Baggot, which was made too late, he forfeited $250 according to rule 141, which covers frivolous claims.

James Butler entertained the members of the press and a number of horsemen at dinner at his country home this evening.

W. T. Anderson and J. Kelly were both fined $100 for violation of rule 131 on complaint of J. L. Marrone. This rule applies to intimidation regarding the running up of winners and claiming in selling races. This is an aftermath of the Newman-Kelly-Marrone feud and came after the running up of Sam McMeekin.

JOCKEY GROTH RULED OFF FOR FOULING.

(By Peter Clark.)

Reno, Nev., July 19.—The second running of the Nevada Derby, the richest prize in far western racing, having a value of $2,500, was won by George Wingfield's colt, Bank, before a crowd of 6,000 racing enthusiasts. The field was small, but a select one, four of the best three-year-olds in this section competing for it. Bank, Ed Cudihee, Slippery Elm and Sangallo were the starters. Rose Marion, which was jumped on behind in her last race, had to be an absentee.

It is to be deplored that the foul riding of jockey Groth on Sangallo destroyed much of the interest in the race. He used every means at his command to hinder the chances of all the other horses. As the field was going to the half-mile ground he left an opening for Bank and when jockey Phillips tried to go through he pulled his mount over in front of him, shutting him off sharply. Slippery Elm then moved to the front rapidly and Groth sent Sangallo after him forcing him wide on the stretch turn and bumping him out of any chances. Bank had recovered, came down next to the rail and when an eighth out drew up on equal terms with Sangallo. It was at this point that Groth deliberately and in plain view of the big throng grasped hold of Bank's saddle cloth and pulled him back with such force that Sangallo gained a couple of open lengths on him, but the colt displayed great gameness in responding to punishment and came on fast to win by a nose. In all probability, without the interference, Bank would have won by open daylight.

The stewards immediately after the race handed down the following ruling:

"For repeated and deliberate fouling, jockey J. Groth is ruled off the turf."

Jockey R. Estep was indefinitely suspended for foul riding in the first race. The charges against him were that he was holding on to the saddle cloth of Innovation on the lower turn. He had the mount on Erfolg.

The Nevada Stock Farm, which is owned by George W. Wingfield, paraded his beautiful thoroughbred stallions and yearlings before the public, receiving a big ovation. Among them were Honeywood, Ossary, Deutschland and fifteen yearlings.

ASCOT'S POPULAR ROYAL HUNT CUP.

Some Incidents Marking the History of One of the Most Important English Handicaps.

Ascot stands pre-eminent among all the race meetings in Great Britain, alike on the score of the value of the stakes competed for, the quality of its sport and the bearing and importance it has in connection with the records of the turf. Next to the Derby, perhaps, the Gold Cup is the prize mostly coveted by those owners who race on the highest plane, and it has fallen to the share of many horses that have earned undying fame both on the course and at the stud. The twenty-eight events making up the annual program include some of the most important set apart for two-year-olds, and others afford almost every kind of racing test. The "Stakes" and Royal Hunt Cup are the leading features among the handicaps, and though the long-distance affair, now that it gives rise to no ante-post speculation, has dropped somewhat out of the general public estimation, the Hunt Cup retains its hold as a popular contest and a medium for wagering. It affords one of the prettiest spectacles of the meeting, and those who have witnessed the field streaming along with the jockeys' colors flashing in the sunlight of a glorious June day are always anxious for a renewal of the experience. Such a favorite is the handicap with owners of horses that large entries are invariably secured, and the competitors have usually borne a fair proportion to them.

It can scarcely be claimed for the race that any really great horse has won it, though some of the winners stand well away from the rest in point of quality and reputation, while to others comparatively little credit attaches by reason of the easy terms upon which they were handicapped. As far as weight is concerned, Collingwood, which won as a six-year-old in 1849 with 133 pounds, holds the record, and the next best is that of Peter, which as a five-year-old carried 129 pounds in 1881. That Peter was a good horse is well remembered, and that he had an erratic temper is also in recollection. At Ascot he was heavily supported, despite his big impost, and to the dismay of his backers stopped to kick in the middle of the race and it was owing to his vigorous handling by Fred Archer that he was induced to go on, pass his horses and win by three-quarters of a length from Sword Dance, a lightly-weighted four-year-old. Though no horse has won the Hunt Cup twice, more than one owner has had a double taste of success, and among them is Lord (then Mr.) Gerard, who won with the three-year-olds Sweetbread and Elzevir in 1882 and 1883 respectively. Both were considered to have pretensions for the St. Leger, to which their ready victories at Ascot lent color, but though both were well befriended for the Doncaster event, neither ran into the first three. Each had, however, done Jewitt's stable good service in the Royal Hunt Cup, and two more three-year-olds from the same establishment (Shillelagh and Suspender) were successful respectively in 1888 and 1892. The first-named received strong market recognition, but 25 to 1 was obtainable about the chance of Suspender, and the latter, by the way, in scoring under 108 pounds, made a record among the three-year-olds.

J. Cannon, the Lordship trainer, has sent out two winners of the Hunt Cup—Laureate II. in 1891 and Csardas in 1904, and a curious episode attaches to the first-named. The batch of horses sent to Ascot by Cannon were found to total thirteen, but as it was thought that that unlucky number might not augur well for the success of the stable at the meeting, Laureate II. was "thrown in" to fulfill his engagement in the Hunt Cup, though it was not originally intended that he should run. Racegoers will recollect that Laureate II. (minus the numerals) won the Cambridgeshire for the lucky Mr. Hammond in 1889, and after an unsuccessful career the following year was sent to the stud. Not shining in his new sphere, he was put into training again, and as Laureate II. made a couple of unsuccessful appearances before being sent to Ascot. In view of his Cambridgeshire victory he was not harshly treated as a five-year-old with 110 pounds, but his form on returning to the course had not been encouraging, and 33 to 1 was obtainable about him at the start. In the hands of Mornington Cannon he got home by a half length from Rathbeal, the strongly-fancied Yard Arm failing to reach the first three. Cannon's other winner, Csardas, by Ladas out of Polka, which had shown some fair form as a juvenile, was purchased by Mr. C. Morbey for 1,150 guineas as a four-year-old when the horses that had belonged to Mr. Forrest Tod were sent up for sale at Newmarket by his executors, but did nothing towards a return of his purchase money at that age. The next year he was regarded as having a chance for the Lincolnshire Handicap under a light weight, for which he got no nearer than seventh. At Haydock in May, however, he was an easy winner over a mile, thus displaying some return to his form, and his chance for the Royal Hunt Cup showed in a good light. Having the handy weight of 103 pounds, he was backed accordingly and won easily.

The Hunt Cup has proved a lucky race for four-year-olds, no fewer than thirty-seven horses of that age having been successful since it was first run in 1843. Among the earliest was a good one in Buccaneer, which was a smart youngster, and would probably have had something to do with the decision of the Derby won by Thormanby in 1860 but for being "got at" before the race. He, however, won other stakes as a three-year-old, and the following year accounted for three of the seven events in which he took part, in addition to the Royal Hunt Cup. He shone in bright colors at Ascot, for on the opening afternoon he won the Trial Stakes over the New Mile, and as he escaped a penalty for the Cup, run over the same course the following day, his chance as a four-year-old of his class with 119 pounds up looked promising. So it proved, for he scored with ease, having thirty-two competitors behind him. Another good four-year-old that won under the same weight eight years afterwards was See Saw, curiously, a son of Buccaneer from Margery Daw, and he displayed excellent form as a three-year-old in handicaps and other races. Among his best performances was to win the Cambridgeshire with 114 pounds up—a race memorable from the fact that the first four horses were three-year-olds, and that Blue Gown (the Derby winner) was only beaten a length and a half carrying 126 pounds. See Saw was running over his favorite distance in the Hunt Cup, and, with the redoubtable Fordham up, was backed to win a lot of money. He had not much to spare, as he only won by a neck from Cock of the Walk, a horse of his own age, to which he was conceding a stone and a half, and which was quite as well supported as the son of Buccaneer. Lord Wilton, the owner of See Saw, won the race again in 1877 with another four-year-old in Cradle, whose performance, however, was different from that of the victor of 1869, inasmuch as he only had 88 pounds on his back. Cradle was the second winner of the race descended from Buccaneer, as he was a son of See Saw out of Honeymoon. As a two and three-year-old he had not done much, so that he was well dropped into the handicap, but he was trained in a stable that missed few chances, and they did well when Cradle won by a length and a half. But there have been much better fields for the Hunt Cup than Cradle beat, and he failed to earn brackets again until he was a six-year-old. Four-year-olds that won with something like reasonable racing weights may be mentioned in Satyr, 113 pounds, 1868; Winslow, 121 pounds, 1873; Gay Hermit, 111 pounds, 1887; Victor Wild, 105 pounds, 1894; Clorane, 112 pounds, 1895;

GOING FAST AT HAWTHORNE

HAWTHORN WINS THE IRON MASK MEMORIAL IN A CANTER.

Olga Star an Easy First in the Most Valuable Race of the Day—High Horse Makes a New Track Record.

There was no particular brilliancy attaching to Hawthorne's racing yesterday, and the thrilling finishes of the preceding day were absent. All the winners got home by good margins, their victories being well foreshadowed before the last sixteenth was reached.

Two handicaps featured. One was for sprinters at three-quarters, the other at a mile and one-sixteenth with an $1,800 selling clause attachment. They were interesting contests, and were annexed by the best backed ones.

Hawthorn, which J. B. Goodman brought here from Latonia, and which won impressively on the preceding day, repeated his former good effort and led his opponents for the entire way in the Iron Mask Memorial Handicap, ultimately winning eased up from Uncle Hart with Pesky following. The former Buschemeyer star set a terrific early pace and wound up the journey, a quarter of a second off from the track record, when he finished in 1:13. Uncle Hart made a game but unavailing effort, and near the end had to be urged hard to outstay Pesky. The latter with a strong rider would have been much more troublesome. The purse in this race had $750 in money and Jefferson Livingston, one time owner of Iron Mask, added a handsome silver cup valued at $250.

In the longer handicap, which was for a purse of $1,000, Olga Star was given confident support and she made good in easy style after having followed the leaders for the first three-quarters. She stripped clean yesterday, not a vestage of bandage being in evidence. Star of Love followed Bonanza closely, under restraint, for the first three-quarters and made a game challenge when rounding into the stretch, but Olga Star passed him with ease after a slight shaking up.

The track record of 2:02 for the odd mile and three-sixteenth distance was broken in the closing race when High Horse won after a close stretch sprint with Amulet and Impression. High Horse set the new mark at 2:01⅘. J. W. Fuller's veteran Injury, was given the call in this and had stout support, but he never figured prominently at any part of the running. Impression started out like a whirlwind and set the pace until beginning the stretch turn, where he showed signs of weakening and Amulet passed him, only to be in turn passed by High Horse. After the finish W. C. Weant advanced High Horse from his entered price of $300 to $805, but failed to get him.

Another run-up of the afternoon came in the third race when Miss Fannie led a mediocre band to the finish. She was in to be sold for $500 and C. N. Freeman thought well enough of her to bid $1,000, but owner Walsh protected her with the customary $5 advance.

H. G. Bedwell's Blue Grass Belle, that he got by the claiming route before leaving Canada, showed herself to be a right smart filly, judging by the easy manner in which she disposed of the youngsters she met in the second race. John E. Madden's Oakwood Boy was her closest contender at the end with the outsider Deckhand leading the others.

The fourteen that made the opening contest were an ordinary band, with little to choose between them. However, Royal Tea commanded considerable betting attention and, racing to his best form and beginning well, stayed with the leaders until reaching the stretch, where he parted company and won easily from Orotund. James Dockery, after a good stretch sprint, almost nipped the Bedwell-owned racer for second place.

Yesterday's attendance was on a par with the preceding day and no incidents of a marring nature occurred. The heavy rain that visited the down-town district missed the Hawthorne course. The weather was intensely hot.

As a result of the two run-ups there will be $1,010 added to the purses for next Friday.

Starter Milton added Mater, Bean Spiller and Lady Powers to his schooling list.

Jockey Ammann was suspended for three days by the starter for failure to get away with the others in the third race. He had the mount on Ruth Strickland.

The victory of High Horse enabled jockey R. Hack to graduate from the maiden ranks, it being his first winning mount during his riding career.

Jockey Wolstenholm while at the post for the fourth race was savaged on the leg by Guide Post. The boy suffered much pain during the running of the race, and he could not give Pesky, which he rode, his best effort. H. G. Bedwell, his contract owner will probably decide to confine the boy's riding to his own horses hereafter.

The condition books for the final eight days of the meeting, beginning next Friday, were distributed among the horsemen yesterday by racing secretary Ed Jasper. The daily programs will bring out good class horses as a rule, with long route races being featured. The two-year-olds also will have plenty of opportunities to win purses.

Presiding Steward Chris Fitzgerald modified the suspension against jockey Bryne to enable him to ride horses owned by his contract employer, R. J. Mackenzie.

Edward Wagner took occasion yesterday afternoon to deny the rumors that he would probably give a meeting at Libertyville, Ill., following the close of Hawthorne. "Don't know anything about the matter and have no intention of giving a race meeting at Libertyville," said Mr. Wagner.

Racing Secretary Jasper yesterday received a telegram to the effect that several stables are on their way here from Tijuana, and the horses will arrive on Friday. Included in the band are some belonging to A. B. Spreckels, the wealthy California breeder. Former jockey W. Caywood will have six racers in the consignment, J. Randolph eight, and J. Chapman, three.

Louis Cella was among the day's arrivals and he will remain for several days. He came from his home in St. Louis.

Advices from Detroit are to the effect that a large number of turfites will leave there for Chicago at the conclusion of the Windsor meeting next Saturday. It is expected that some horses will also come over.

Weights for the Chicago Merchants' Handicap, for three-year-olds and over at three-quarters of a mile, and to be run Saturday, were made public yesterday and are as follows:

ASCOT'S POPULAR ROYAL HUNT CUP.

Andover, 112 pounds, 1905; Lally, 113 pounds, 1907, and Bachelor's Double, 116 pounds, 1910; and the best of the batch was probably Clorane, which will be remembered as the winner of the Lincolnshire Handicap under 130 pounds in 1896, though it must be remembered that "Victor" was the hero of two memorable Kempton Park Jubilees in 1895 and 1896.

To only three "aged" horses has the Hunt Cup been credited—The Mandarin in 1879, Despair in 1886 and Royal Flush in 1900—and all started at remunerative prices, the first-named at 33 to 1, the second at 25 to 1 and Royal Flush at 100 to 7. Despair was yet another descendant of Buccaneer to win the Ascot race, being by See Saw out of Peine de Coeur, and he had secured a considerable number of races in previous seasons. Originally the property of his trainer, the late W. G. Stevens, he passed into the possession of Mr. W. Gilbert, and was rather fancied for the Cup as a three-year-old, running third to Sweetbread and Edensor. In the field again the following year, he filled the same position, Elzevir being first and Nessclift second, but his third attempt in 1886 was successful with 111 pounds in the saddle. It was a case of perseverance rewarded, as the son of See Saw never won a race afterwards. Royal Flush's victory was an incident connected with what was known as the "American invasion," when the tricks and the manners of many visitors from the other side of the Atlantic created anything but a favorable impression here. For a long time the property of Mr. W. F. Lee (now one of the official handicappers), Royal Flush had gone through a useful career, chiefly in the North of England, where he won many races at about a mile and a quarter or less, until he was a six-year-old. On Mr. Lee relinquishing the sport and his horses coming up for sale the son of Favo and Flush was purchased for 400 guineas by Mr. Wishard, who raced in conjunction with his brother American, Mr. J. A. Drake. Subjected to Yankee methods of training and of management, he won a good stake for his connections in the Royal Hunt Cup, into which he was let at ninety-eight pounds, but he only got home by a head in the hands of J. Reiff, who was a jockey for the confederacy. Royal Flush afterwards won the Stewards' Cup at Goodwood, Sussex Plate at Brighton and the Cleveland Handicap at Doncaster, and he was thought good enough to match against that good horse, Eager, at even weights over six furlongs. The match, for 500 sovereigns each, with a gold cup of the same value added by the executive, came off at the Hurst Park meeting and was quite a feature of the afternoon. Public sentiment was on the side of Eager, which, ridden by Mornington Cannon, landed the odds of 7 to 4 on him in a canter by three lengths amidst much enthusiasm.—London Sportsman.

BURGOMASTER YEARLING BRINGS $5,100.

New York, July 19.—An even dozen thoroughbred yearlings sold at auction by the Powers-Hunter Company at Durland's Monday night brought a total of $11,005. These yearlings were consigned by John H. Morris from his Bosque Bonita Stock Farm at Versailles, Ky., and most of them were by the Hamburg stallion Burgomaster and from mares of known quality.

The prize of the lot was obtained by Congressman George W. Loft, when Max Hirsch, bidding for him, paid $5,100 for a magnificent brown son of Burgomaster and Antipathy. This one was knocked down only after a spirited contest in which A. J. Joyner, representing M. L. Schwartz, and Lawrence Carey, bidding for Frank Nolan of the Beverwyck Stable, had tried to buy him.

The second best price was paid by Joyner when he bought a chestnut half-sister to Blue Thistle, a daughter of Burgomaster and Wild Thistle, for $2,600. Mr. Joyner was bidding for M. L. Schwartz. The summary of the sale:

Brown colt by Burgomaster—Antipathy; George W. Loft	$5,100
Chestnut filly by Burgomaster—Wild Thistle; M. L. Schwartz	2,600
Bay colt by Burgomaster—March; E. F. Whitney	800

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Louis Tauber is among the late arrivals at Empire City from Kentucky.

Fair Helen carried 114 pounds in race 27794, instead of 104, as previously reported.

Trojan, the Futurity winner of 1914, has a badly bowed tendon, and it is doubtful if he will ever race again.

Foxhall P. Keene's three-year-old Churchill is safely back at Sheepshead Bay from his unsuccessful trip to Chicago to run in the American Derby.

W. H. Baker, who is on an eastern trip, let it be known at Yonkers Monday that he and his brother Grover are desirous of disposing of some of their racers in training to make way for the yearlings they have purchased at an outlay of some $18,000.

The stable of F. Ambrose Clark, embracing twenty-one horses, has arrived at Saratoga. The latest shipments to Saratoga from Long Island embrace the stables of George D. Widener, Jr., M. L. Schwartz, F. F. Ryan, A. R. Bresler and S. McNaughton.

George Zeigler, who trains the horses of the Beverwick Stable, was a visitor at Empire City Monday. He said his horses were all at the Saratoga track and doing nicely. He expressed the opinion that Lena Misha would train on and be a good colt, although he is going slowly with him. He said he did not expect to send him to the post before the fall meeting at Belmont Park.

The management of the Mount Royal course is now considering the installation of the pari-mutuels for the meeting to be held in the autumn. The management will go to Kentucky to look after the placing of the order at the conclusion of this meeting. It is almost an assured thing that they will be installed. It is planned to use a combination machine so as not to have too many machines at the plant.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

J. L. J., Chicago. Racing at Windsor begins at 2:30 eastern time, which is 1:30 p. m., Chicago time.

J. I. O'S., Chicago. Must be a mistake as to name. Valid was a two-year-old in 1897 and did not race at New Orleans that year, nor in the following three years, if ever.

Thos. W. Detroit, Mich. Hermis did not start in the American Derby of 1903, for the good and sufficient reason that he was then a four-year-old. But he did start in the American Derby of 1902, which Wyeth won with Lucien Appleby second and Aladdin third. Hermis was pulled up last. "Patsy" McCue rode him and was in no condition to ride.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

From Petrograd yesterday a dispatch said: Although the issue of the struggle between the opposing forces in the region of the Stokhod river hangs in the balance, and there has been during the last few days no essential change in the situation along the main Russian front, the Russians have achieved three important advances at widely separated points in the eastern war theater. The first is the successful drive from the new quarter in Volhynia, southwest of Lutsk. The second is an advance of the extreme southern wing of General Brussiloff's forces along the high road leading into Hungary, and the third is the improved situation in the Caucasus resulting from the taking of Baiburt. In the first region the Russian operations are now directed against the left wing of General Boehm-Ermolli's army near Sviniusky, which has already yielded ground before the fierceness of the Russian assaults. Of the four Austrian army groups employed against Brussiloff's forces, Boehm-Ermolli's group has been the least affected by the Russian offensive and, after its initial withdrawal from Dubno at the beginning of the Russian campaign, has held its ground firmly against all the Russian attempts to push the advance to the Galician frontier town of Brody. The beginning of the further retreat of this group, therefore, is considered extremely important and may open up a new Russian radius of attack from the north. The taking of Baiburt, which has been the goal of the central Caucasian armies ever since the fall of Erzerum, has definitely ended, according to military operation here, all chances of a successful Turkish counter offensive, which, with Baiburt as a base, the Turks have for months been carrying on with the object of regaining the entire Trebizond-Erzerum area.

An investigation yesterday at Philadelphia, disclosed that with present facilities and those being added under millions of dollars' worth of new contracts just closed, that city in less than twelve months will be the greatest and biggest shipbuilding center in the world. There are now under construction or contracted for seventy-six ships, with a total gross tonnage of 420,253. Millions of dollars are being poured into the shipbuilding industry along the Delaware river. Thousands of men are working long hours getting new shipyards together. This tremendous boost is due primarily, of course, to the fact that the seas have been practically stripped of foreign shipping by the European war and there is an enormous demand for bottoms which will carry foreign and domestic sea trade. All the big yards here are jammed with all the work they can do for the next three years. They are refusing orders every day on this account. Among the largest of these yards is the Cramp Company, New York Shipbuilding Company, Philadelphia Navy Yard, Pusey & Jones, Harlan & Hollingsworth, Chester Shipbuilding Company and Quigley & Dorp. The Pennsylvania Shipbuilding Company is completing a big, new $6,000,000 yard. The Sun Shipbuilding Company, organized by New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh men, is completing a new yard costing several millions. A report today shows that Cramp is building thirteen ships with a total gross tonnage of 81,300; the Chester Company, ten ships, with 48,600 tonnage; the New York company, twenty-four ships, with 126,305 tonnage; Harlan & Hollingsworth, fourteen ships, with 85,000 tonnage; Pusey & Jones, nine ships, with 37,048 tonnage, and the Pennsylvania company, six ships, with 42,000 tonnage.

From Brownsville, Tex., yesterday a dispatch said: One troop of the First Illinois Cavalry began today to guard the Brownsville Electric Light and Water Pumping plant and the adjacent strip of river bank. Colonel Foreman spent this morning receiving reports on the strength and efficiency of the various troops preparatory to assigning one to the important task. Illinois thus becomes the first state except Texas to furnish troops for actual border duty, and the station is one of the most dangerous on the whole Rio Grande. The plant, which is worth a half million dollars, is on the river bank directly across from the Mexican city of Matamoros. It is outside of Brownsville, a mile from the Illinois camp, but farther from Fort Brown. Army strategists agree that the plant would be the first objective point if a raid were made on Brownsville. Its taking would throw this city into darkness and cut off its water supply. It has been guarded by regular soldiers for about two years. A company of the Fourth United States Infantry has been camped there for several months, and is relieved by the Illinoisans. Many times the soldiers have been fired on from the Mexican side, the last time being just over two weeks ago. It is real service at last, and the whole Illinois regiment, from the colonel down, is delighted at the change and at the confidence shown in them by the regulars through the assignment. The strip to be patrolled includes three fords, over one of which last summer came one of the most murderous Mexican raids made in this vicinity.

That the German army has suffered great losses during the allied attack on the western front is gained from the admissions of prisoners brought to the headquarters of the British armies in France, and reliable information is responsible for the estimate of experts that the number of their casualties in killed, wounded and prisoners must be somewhat near 150,000. An artillery officer, as a result of rough calculations, says that along the allied main front of attack in the west since June 27, 500,000 shells per day have been raining on the enemy. On this basis the allies have used up in twenty days 10,000,000 projectiles of all sorts, exclusive of bombs, rifle and machine gun fire. According to advices reaching London, the capture of Ovillers was signalized by appalling German losses and the most desperate fighting since the offensive began. That the Germans realized the position's value is shown by the fact that the defense was intrusted to picked regiments of the Third Division of the Imperial Guard. In one underground retreat twenty-five Germans, survivors of a full battalion, who had not tasted food for sixty hours, were captured. In another stronghold the survivors were nearly dead from thirst.

Twenty-seven men from the First Infantry, rejected for the second time by medical examiners because of physical defects or illness, will depart from Camp Wilson, Texas, for Chicago within the next two or three days. Out of the forty-four men disqualifed by the medical examiners at Springfield, seventeen were accepted as fit to serve in the second test. Doctors examining the Second Infantry are reported to have disqualified fifty men out of 139. The men rejected from Colonel Joseph B. Sanborn's regiment are Thomas J. Kelley, Orrin W. Romer, Harper C. Watress, Mark H. Wasster, Harry Lind, Melville Dourier, Earl F. Austin, Charles E. Moe, John K. Miner, William S. Simpson, Frank W. Shick, Earl M. Scikes, Russell H. Wilson, Walter J. Tranowski, John A. Witt, Frank J. Wenzeler, Chester S. Simmons, Charles T. J. Cockrell, Harry Eberlein, Carl Huebuea, Earl L. Lorn, Pasqualle F. Boetta, Edgar C. Beyers, Lucian V. Tranchard, George Murton, Theodore Kanot and Earl J. Frank.

According to a London dispatch the Germans have recaptured a portion of Delville wood and obtained a footing in the northern outskirts of Longueval, the war office announced yesterday. The enemy's attack last night, the beginning of which already has been reported, was directed against our new positions east of Bazentin village, the statement says. Very large German reinforcements had been collected for this attack. After an intense artillery fire the first assault was delivered in dense masses at about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The fighting continued all night and was particularly violent in Delville wood. After suffering very heavy losses the enemy recaptured a portion of Delville wood and also obtained a footing in the northern outskirts of Longueval. The struggle in these areas still is violent. Elsewhere the attack, including three separate assaults on Waterlot farm, completely broke down under our fire.

The breaking off of conferences at New York between the Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Protective Association and the International Garment Workers' Union left the garment workers' strike to all intents where it was when it started three months ago. Statements issued by both sides accused the other of bad faith and responsibility for the failure of negotiations. The strike affects some 40,000 employes and about 500 manufacturers. It is estimated that orders for women's clothes worth $60,000,000 have been left unfilled. Strike payments of $65,000 a week have been made by the union. The citizens' committee, which has been aiding the workers, issued a statement today saying as the result of the strike more than 200,000 persons are facing hunger. The committee plans to raise $35,000 a week for the benefit of the garment workers as long as the strike lasts.

From Berlin yesterday a dispatch said: The recapture by German troops of the village of Longueval and of Delville wood is announced today by the war office. In addition to these successes along the Somme front the French were repulsed in their continued attempts to gain ground in the Froide Terre ridge in the Verdun region. The Russians have been reinforced strongly along the front south and southwest of Riga at the northern end of the Russian line and have been attacking Field Marshal von Hindenburg's forces there heavily. The assaults, however, all failed, the Russians suffering unusually severe losses. South and southwest of Riga, our brave regiments caused repeated attacks by the Russians, delivered with strengthened forces, to break down with extraordinarily heavy losses for the enemy.

Eight thousand guardsmen now at Laredo, Tex., will be moved back from the border to one of the smaller towns on the railroad connecting Laredo and San Antonio unless General Funston alters his plans announced Monday. Citizens of Laredo recently sent to Texas congressmen a telegraphic protest against the unsanitary condition of the guardsmen's camp, calling attention to the limited supply of water. This protest reached General Funston, who admitted that better conditions might be found. The regular troops will be left at Laredo and a small detachment of the guards, but he said he would move most of the 8,000 away from the town, holding them at some point on the railroad from which they can be moved quickly to the border if their services are required.

The Russians are now in possession of four important lines leading into Hungary, as a result of their advance along the Kirlibaba-Maramaros-Sziget road. Following their conquest of Bukowina, which took them but a month practically to complete, they seem to be meeting with little resistance on the southern portion of the eastern front. General von Linsingen's retirement across the Lipa on the eastern front is considered by the critics as removing the last serious obstacle to the advance of the Russians toward Lemberg, the capital of Galicia. Reports from Rome say that the retirement of the Teutonic allies on the Lipa has caused a panic in Galicia, where towns are being evacuated.

Sir Roger Casement's appeal from his conviction on the charge of high treason, for which he was sentenced to death, was dismissed at London Monday. The Court of Criminal Appeal announced its decision after listening to arguments by Alexander Sullivan, Casement's counsel, who contended that the instructions to the jury in Casement's trial were inaccurate, and that the actions complained of in the indictment did not constitute a statutory offense. Unless the crown commutes the death sentence, Casement will die on the gallows. The justices dismissed the appeal without hearing counsel for the crown.

Settlement of the strike of 6,000 bituminous coal miners in the Allegheny and Kiskiminitas valleys is expected at Pittsburgh when representatives of the United Mine Workers of America confer with members of the Pittsburg Coal Operators' Association. Other scattering strikes, but of smaller proportions in District No. 5, are expected to be ended as soon as John L. Lewis, chairman of the international board committee, returns to Pittsburgh within a day or two. Before starting for Kentucky Mr. Lewis said he did not expect any more trouble in the Pittsburgh territory because of the acceptance by the miners of the New York scale.

The Cologne Gazette's Vienna correspondent says the Serbian Colonel Radowitsch has been arrested in the concentration camp near Salzburg because it was claimed documents found in the Serbian state archives proved he was an accessory in the assassination in July 1914, at Sarayevo, of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir presumptive to the Austrian throne, and his wife, the Princess Hohenberg. The killing of the archduke and the princess was the first step leading to the war in Europe.

Freedom to enter the United States, once denied, was granted Tuesday night to former President Cipriano Castro of Venezuela, and his wife, by order of Secretary Wilson of the labor department, who overruled the decision of the special board of immigration officials at New York, denying them admission. Under the secretary's ruling, the Castros are free to go to Porto Rico as they had planned, or to remain indefinitely in the United States.

Frank Gotch is out of the circus and wrestling for a long time because of a broken leg just above the ankle, sustained Tuesday in an exhibition bout with Bob Managoff, of Chicago. Managoff is acting as trainer for the champion, who is traveling with a circus. Gotch had reached for a hip hold on his opponent, who was putting up a rough bout before a capacity crowd, when he caught his leg between two gymnasium mats. The bone snapped.

It is reported at Stockholm that the British steamship Adams, 2,223 tons gross, has been captured by a German destroyer off Ahus, Sweden, while on a voyage from Finland. Two more neutral vessels have been torpedoed. The Ritzau News Agency of Copenhagen says they were the Dutch iron ship Denula and the Swedish schooner Bertha, and that their crews were landed at Nyborg.

A Lloyds' dispatch from Algiers to London, says the Italian steamship Angelo, 3,600 tons, has been sunk by a submarine. The crew was landed. The Greek steamship Evangelistria, 2,212 tons, is believed to have been sunk. The Angelo sailed from Wilmington, Del., June 4, for Spezia, Italy, reaching that port on June 25.

The French government has called to the colors a part of the class of 1888—that is, men from forty-seven to forty-eight years of age, except those in munition factories, and for the present, farmers and farm laborers who are now busy with the harvest.

The Panama canal zone's population is 31,018, said a consular report received yesterday giving a census just taken by the police and fire division. American residents number 14,876.

Three large enemy transports were sunk by submarines in the east part of the Black Sea and a fourth forced to run ashore, according to an official statement from the Turkish admiralty received at Berlin yesterday.

First start.

GOOD RACING IN SPAIN AND ITALY.

Mr. N. Jacobs, who is at St. Sabastian, together with his partner, Mr. B. Fry, has kindly cabled me the result of last Sunday's Grand Prix 1 1-2 miles, the most valuable race ever run for in Spain, for it was worth roughly 4,000 sovereigns, of which 2,800 sovereigns goes to the winner, 600 sovereigns to the second, 400 sovereigns to the third, and 200 sovereigns to the fourth. From the cable I learn that Mr. J. D. Cohn's stable ran first and second with Teddy and Spirt, Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt's Meigs finishing third. According to the last issue of "Le Sport Belge," Mr. Vanderbilt's stable was favorite in the ante-post wagering in St. Sebastian at about 3 to 1, with Mr. Cohn's stable second choice at 5 to 1, but as the message announcing the success of Teddy does not mention the prices at the start it will be necessary to wait for further news. Spirt was expected to be the mount of G. Stern. Teddy is a bay three-year-old colt by Ajax out of Rondeau, by Bay Ronald out of Doremi. He was bred at the Jardy stud by M. Edmond Blanc and was purchased last October at the sale of that well known sportsman's horses in training. All that Mr. Cohn gave for him was 5,400 francs, and the colt has got back the purchase money considerably more than ten times over at the first time of asking. Spirt, which was specially nominated at a cost of 80 sovereigns at the second entry, is a five-year-old horse by Arizona (winner of the Alexandra Plate) out of Surface and Meigs, which occupied the third place, is by the American-bred sire Peter Pan out of Megg's Hill. Teddy is bred to stay on both sides of his pedigree, for his sire, Ajax (by Flying Fox), won the Grand Prix de Paris of his year, and his dam, Rondeau, which was bred by Sir John Robinson, was a good winner. As a four-year-old it will be remembered that Rondeau, with Danny Maher up, carried Sir James Miller's colors into second place for the Cesarewitch won by Wargrave, to which she was trying to concede fourteen pounds.

From La Chronique du Turf I note that Sir Rholand about a fortnight since won the valuable Prix Ambrosiano at Milan, 2,000 sovereigns about one mile and a quarter with Kibwesi, which was ridden by A. Manchester and defeated eight others. Kibwesi is yet another big Continental winner got by that stallion Galeazzo which in France sired that brilliant performer Eryx, Brilliantine, and many other winners, while last year his daughter Galliflora won the Italian Oaks. Another English jockey, J. Davis, won the Prix Parma at Milan on the Besnate Stud's Diomede, in a big field, and on the same afternoon Sir Rholand won two other races by aid of Golis (another son of Galeazzo) and Frera (one of the get of Lally). M. Camille Blanc at a more recent meeting at Milan secured a handicap with Chiendent. M. Blanc has only three or four horses in Italy, and has already won several good races with them. Kibewesi added to his Ambrosiano laurels by taking the Prix du St. Gothard. From all this it will be seen that racing in Milan, and also at other Italian meetings, is going on well. English and Anglo-French jockeys almost monopolize the riding, among the English jockeys being D. Blackburn, J. Davis, F. Thompson, A. Woodland, A. Manchester, etc., while Clout, J. E. Watkins, G. Sauval and others represent France.—"Vigilant" in London Sportsman of July 4.

OLD-TIME RACING AROUND NEW YORK.

Now Forgotten Tracks That Were the Scenes of Memorable Contests Between North and South.

Be it frolic, fight or finance—it's America to the fore. As in other branches of sport America long ago established its supremacy on the turf, and with the war abroad cutting down the supply of thoroughbred stock our position at the top will not even be challenged for many years to come. Some of Englands' best, including that fine horse Short Grass, recent winner of the Empire City Handicap, have been imported to supplement our own royally-bred lines.

Just as America leads the world in racing, so does New York lead the country. It was in the vicinity of the metropolis that racing got its first start on this side of the Atlantic, back in 1664. This city and vincinity have had more race courses and tracks than probably even London itself. From time to time there have been most discouraging conditions and stumbling blocks placed in the way of those interested in the thoroughbred and competition, but still the sport has prospered.

The anti-betting laws of 1908, which threatened the extinction of racing in this state, were nothing new. Even as far back as 1819 laws were enacted that forced the abandonment of several courses and put a halt to all racing. But the following three years saw the inauguration of a halcyon era on the American turf. Temporary discouragements are sure to crop up from time to time, but they will never wipe out the game.

It has been declared that in richness of associations the American turf suffers by comparison with the English. The history of racing in this country fails to bear out that assertion. We may not have any classic that approaches the famous Derby of Epsom, but there is many a fixture and many a course here that abounds in romance—stories of fabulous wagers, intense sectional rivalry, wonderful feats of speed and endurance.

Racing was established here in pre-Revolutionary days, with the laying out of the old Union course near what is now the course of the Piping Rock Racing Association, at Locust Valley, Long Island. It was at the old Union course that American Eclipse and Sir Henry ran their memorable match race in four mile heats, with $40,000 as the stakes. That race, staged in May, 1823, is said to have been the most famous in American racing annals.

Eclipse beat Sir Henry. The race inaugurated the golden age of the American turf. There was an intense intersectional rivalry in those antebellum days, and more than 60,000 persons crowded the course, most of them betting on Eclipse, the northern favorite.

Those were the days of four-mile heats—and horses were bred and trained to go the route. Eclipse, not to be confounded with the Eclipse which was imported shortly after the civil war, was a grandson of the great Messenger, progenitor of many a turf star and of at least 40,000 trotters. The Messenger strain has accounted for a host of records in the light harness world. The inherent ability to go the route and pace in long heats was turned to fine account on the trotting track.

Messenger was born at Piping Rock and in 1812 was given a military burial in the Quaker colony at Locust Valley.

The Union course was the scene of another notable long distance race. It was run on October 13, 1832, and was an open event for stakes of $6,000. They had to go five heats of four miles each before Black Maria was declared the winner. The first heat was won by Black Maria, which ran a dead heat with Trifle in the second four miles. Trifle won the third heat, Lady Relief the fourth and Black Maria the fifth. The dead heat brought out the fastest time, 7:55.

The final North and South struggle at the Union course was staged in 1845, when the Northern entry, Fashion, was beaten by Kirkman's Peytona. The issue was decided in two straight heats of four miles—and how the men from Dixie cleaned up! Only the year before Fashion had set a record for four miles at 7:32½, in beating Boston, the Southern entry, owned by Col. James Long of Washington. Peytona won a great race at Nashville in 1843, for a sweepstakes of $36,000. The Kirkman entry went four heats of four miles.

Kentucky has revived and abandoned the four-mile races of the past, although it has eliminated the heat feature. In the Kentucky Endurance Stakes on October 7, 1911, Messenger Boy was timed in 7:14 1/5, and the next year Sotemia went 7:10 4/5, to a new world's record.

In the middle of the fifties Lexington was the king of all over the long distance route and set a record of 7:19¾ for four miles. On October 17, 1867, at Jerome Park, Kentucky, which was sired by Lexington, was sent against the record and went the four miles in 7:31¾.

Only the year before, at Jerome Park right here, in the Inaugural Stakes, Kentucky was a winner in straight heats, being timed in 7:35 and 7:41½.

The old Union course was superseded in 1848 by the Fashion course on Long Island. The old Newmarket course, which was abandoned in 1819, was located on the Hempstead Plains on Long Island. The railroad spur that leads to the polo fields at Meadow Brook passes over the scene where once New York's fashion and beauty travelled to see the thoroughbred in action.

There was another Union course, in what is now East New York, and the memory of which is still preserved in the name of the locality. The Centreville course was also located on Long Island. In 1863 racing was established at Saratoga, and in 1866 Jerome Park was opened. Then came Prospect Park, later called Gravesend, and Monmouth Park in New Jersey.

Other tracks located in the metropolitan section were Morris Park, Guttenburg, Gloucester, N. J.; the Hoboken or Seacaucus course and the old track at Paterson. Later came Brighton Beach, Sheepshead Bay, Belmont Park and Empire City.

Before the growth of trotting running races were featured at the county fairs throughout the country.

Many a romantic tale could be spun about the old courses of the South, the famous track at Lexington, founded back in 1828; the picturesque Churchill Downs at Louisville and the older courses of Virginia, Maryland, the Carolinas, which existed in pre-Revolutionary times. New Orleans had the aristocrat among southern courses in the Metairie track, which had a worthy rival in exclusiveness in the Charleston track.

There are quite a number of veterans of the Bernie Riley type whose memories hearken back to the ante-bellum racing days, and they are unanimous in their opinion that the stake horses of that time could have held their own with the stars of the present day. It is true that records have been bettered from year to year, but it must be remembered that track conditions of the long ago were nothing like those of this era.

The trainer of 1860 would no more have thought of sending his horse onto a track of the type now extant than Jimmy Rowe, for example, would consider training his horses on a cinder path. The old courses were slow, and the horses sunk in the dirt almost up to their fetlocks. It is true that Sotemia clipped almost ten seconds off the old marks of Lexington, but is is a question if Sotemia could have gone the route in another heat.—New York Sun.
